

Owning a pet

I want to buy a pet.

Really?
What kind of pet do you want?

I want a puppy. They're so cute. (giggle)

Ya! Puppies are really sweet, but you have to take care of it, you know.

What do you mean? I don't understand.

Well....you have to train it to be a good dog, feed it very day, clean up it's poop....

Just a minute! Clean up it's poop! I'm not doing that!

You have to. If you own a pet you have to be responsible for it. And you should get it de-sexed so it won't have more puppies.

OMG! I don't know if I want one anymore. It's too much work!

Ya! Think carefully before owning a pet. It's a big responsibility
